Pittsburg. May 28,-(Special) When Manager Brown told his men from the coaching lines after the first half of the first luning that they had an easy game, he certainly told the truth. At that time the Senators had five runs to the Pirates' "get some," and there was not a single moment thereafter that the result of the Manager Watkins decided to try Jimmy Gardner on the rubber, inasmuch as that young man had been doing some excellent work. Jimmy did not last more than five minutes, and in that time four runs had been scored and things looked decidedly blue. It was biff, bang on Gardner right from the start and he seemed heartily glad to get out of it himself. Triples by Anderson and Wagner, coupled with a couple of singles and a base on balls, gave the visitors a lead of five runs and made the home team lack enough energy to whip a measly Spanlard.

After Gardner had been sent to the stable Watkins put Tannehill in to finish the inning and then opened the second inning with Leever on the rubber. Leever seemed to be a puzzle to the Scanters until the eighth liming, when they went after him tooth and nail, and by a brace of triples and a couple of singles succeeded in landing four more runs and practically settling the game beyond any

For the Senators Mercer did not pitch the ball he was wont to do here in days gone by, and in fact had it not been for the hits the visitors made off Gardner they would probably have been beaten. as Winnie was exceedingly unsteady and lacked that good judgment for which he has always been noted in Pittsburg.

It would be almost wearisome to tell of the runs as they were made. Suffice to say that the visitors outbatted and even cutfielded the home team and won by better all-round work. The score:

Hundreds of $10, $12 and $15 Brand-New Serge, Cheviot and Cassimere Summer Suits ordered for May and June delivery to go at $7.25.

AST January we ordered several thousand summer suits for delivery this May and June, not knowing at that time that we would be able to secure the Perry buildings. When we did secure them, it was too late to countermand the order, and so the suits were made up, and they are here now and must be disposed of before we can move

The immensity of the stock and the shortness of the time in which we have to sell them necessitates HEROIC ACTION. We realize that ordinary reductions will not suffice. We must do something UNUSUAL-UNHEARD OF-in the matter of price-cutting-and so we have in the majority of cases CUT THE PRICES SQUARE IN HALF.

Fortunately for you and for us, the suits are in the height of their desirability-more of them being sold now than any other kinds of garments, and they ought to go in a jiffy.

The shipment includes handsome Single and Double-breasted Sack Suits, in Black and Blue Serges-Black and Blue Cheviots-Mixed Cheviots-Mixed Cassimeres and Fancy Worstedsmade for this Summer and just delivered to us from the manufacturers this week-so they are just as new and stylish as they can be. They are actually worth and would be sold by us if we were not removing at $10, $12 and $15. As it is, the whole shipment is to be cleared out

Youths' $8 to $10 Suits, $5.50. Large Enough for Small Men.

Along with the Men's Suits came the usual assortment of Youths' Long Pants Suits in the same materials, viz., Cheviots, Serges, Cassimeres, Worsteds. These are in sizes 15 to 19-are made just exactly like the men's suits-and the larger sizes will fit small men. They should sell for $8 and $10, and you cannot buy them for a cent less elsewhere. We shall close them out at.....

Anybody who buys one of these Suits and concludes that it is not worth at least 50 per cent more than he paid for it can bring it back and get his money without a question being asked.

Cincinnati, May 26.-The New Yorks made their initial appearance of the season at League Park minus the services n the first inning and errors were also of George Davis, whose absence it seems bunched then. The Champions got off on leaves a hole in the infield which is more than any of Joyce's substitutes can fill. The Cincinnatis got their eye and their bats as well squarely on the ball today. and aided by errors by the visitors were successful. Seymour was the easiest proposition probably the locals have faced. The visitors did little with Breitenstein until the last two innings. The Contested Game. Georgetown won from Dartmouth today in a closely contested game. The game abounded in brilliant plays, in which the home team were outplayed by Georgetown. In the ninth inning, with the score 2 to 1 in Georgetown's favor. Dartmouth tled the score on singles by Rounds, Patey and a wild throw by Walsh. In Georgetown's half of the ninth Casev reached first on an error by Hancock and came in on Bach's drive to deep center for two bases. Both Bach and Patey pitched well and Bach accepted eigh chances without an error. For Georgetown Maloney and McCarthy carried off the fielding honors, while Crolius led Dartmouth in the field and at the bat. DARTMOUTH- AB. R. H. O. A. E.

BOWLING BROOK WON.

Captured the Belmont Stake at Mor-

New York, May 26.—The Spring meeting of the Westchester association came to a climax today at Morris Park in the presence of 5,000 spectators. The rain came down in torrents and the track naturally suffered from the deluge. Hamburg opened at 6 to 5 and was Cincinnati 3 2 6 0 0 1 0 0 x=12 promptly backed down to even money. New York 2 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 1-6 Previous was second choice at 2 to 1, and Stolen bases-Joyce and Wilmot. Two- Bowling Brook receded from 3 to 1 and with few takers.

The start for the trying mile and three furlongs over the hill was made right in front of the judges' box and Bowling Brook showed temper. He refused one break but moved off next time on even terms with his two big rivals, while lrving, on Gala Day, seemed satisfied to make a length the worst of it. Ham-burg was quickest to strike his gait, but lowling Brook, on the backstretch.

They ran the first furlong in 13 nec onds, two furlongs in 25.4 seconds the half in 53 seconds and five furlougs in 15.0. Then Bowling Brook showed in front and crossing the hill opened up a gap of a length and a half. At this stare Proteins a length and a half. At this stage Pre-vious moved no closer, but Gala Day was running a race by himself thirty lengths behind. Coming down the hill for home the Morris colt increased his ad-vantage to three lengths, while Hamburg was clearly in trouble. Previous caught and passed him on the flat and the fa-voritie's chances were all these wortes chances were all over. Bowling vortes chances were all over. Bowling Brook won by eight lengths from Fredvious, who finished three lengths in front of Hamburg.
